PLAYHOUSE

November 2011

Dear Friend of The Vineyard Playhouse,

Sparkling drama in an elegant and classic space—that's our goal. As you know, we will name the stage of the new Vineyard Playhouse for the sparkling and elegant and very beloved Patricia Neal. Here's a letter she wrote six years ago. I hope you agree with Pat when she implores us to "give something back to this vital professional theater in our community."

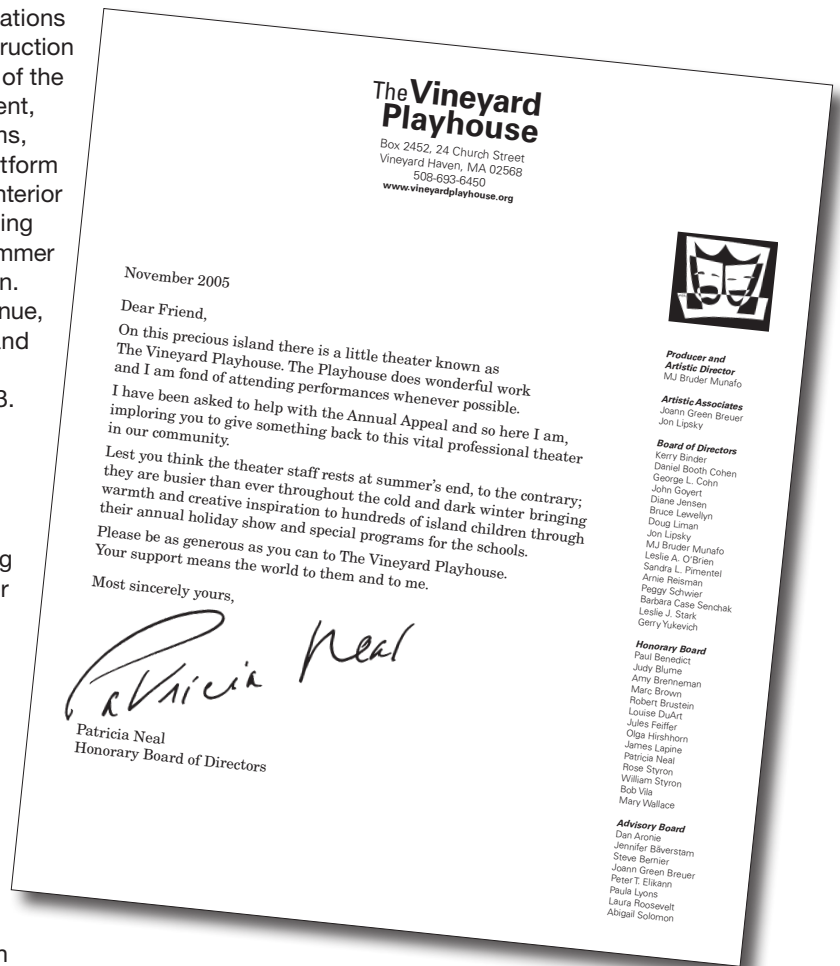

Thanks to you, Playhouse renovations have begun. Some interior construction and a new addition on the back of the Playhouse—including a basement, dressing rooms, public restrooms, a new and improved vertical platform lift, a small workshop, and two interior staircases—will be up and running when we open our doors next summer for our 30th Anniversary Season. If your generous donations continue, we should have the new stage and the new lobby, as well as a full exterior landscape, done by 2013.

We are extremely grateful and excited. But of course, we must also raise funds through this annual appeal letter toward our half-million dollar annual operating budget. So please give whatever you can to keep the cause of sparkling drama going strong on our island. Pat would be proud and gratified for your help and especially for the gorgeous space we are all building together in her memory.

On behalf of the actors, directors, designers, staff, Board of Directors, future audiences, and yes, the spirit of Patricia Neal—who very much adored our hard-working theater—we thank you.

Yours truly
